

The MHRA and the global flu vaccine: How the UK is helping shape the world's flu vaccine

Ensuring the seasonal flu vaccine is ready, safe and effective involves months of international planning, testing and collaboration