HELPING EACH OTHER WITH DEATH, DYING, LOSS AND CARE: KNOWLEDGE-SHARING WORKSHOP

DATE: WEDNESDAY 20TH NOVEMBER 2019
TIME: 1pm until 3.30pm, with buffet lunch at 1pm
VENUE: ROSEANGLE ARTS CAFÉ, 132 PERTH ROAD, DUNDEE,
DD1 4JW

This is a community event, connecting people in Dundee who have a mutual interest in improving people's experiences of death, dying, loss and care.

- What are your priorities?
- How can we make talking about death and dying easier?
- Where should we start?

Please come along to share your ideas about how members of the community, third sector organisations, health and social care teams, and universities can work better together in this area.

Please share this invitation with your colleagues and members of your community and book to join us via the following Eventbrite link:

The Truacanta Project is a new initiative being run by the Scottish Partnership for Palliative Care and funded by Macmillan Cancer Support. To find out more visit <https://www.goodlifedeathgrief.org.uk/content/thetruacantaproject/>

The Truacanta Project is about helping communities unleash their compassion and find ways to help each other with death, dying, loss and care. It is part of the Good Life, Good Death, Good Grief initiative, which promotes more open and supportive attitudes and behaviours relating to death, dying and bereavement in Scotland.

The Truacanta Project is a new initiative being run by the Scottish Partnership for Palliative Care, and funded by Macmillan Cancer Support.

The project will support local communities across Scotland who are interested in taking community action to improve people's experiences of death, dying, loss and care. More information about the Truacanta project is available here.

A Knowledge Sharing Workshop with interested parties to establish what is missing and needed in Dundee is taking place next Wednesday – 20th November – between 1pm and 3.30pm in the Roseangle Kitchen Cafe, 132 Perth Road and lunch will be provided.

This is a community event, connecting people in Dundee who have a mutual interest in improving people's experiences of death, dying, loss and care.

All are welcome to get your views on :

- What are your priorities and experiences?
- What do you think is missing?
- How can we make talking about death and dying easier?
- Where should we start?
- Who else should be involved?

Please come along and share your ideas about how members of the community, third sector organisations, health and social care teams, and universities can work better together in this area.
