

Thematic approach to project licence application review

The Home Office accepts the Animals in Science Committee's proposal to adopt a thematic approach for reviewing project licence applications.