

Theresa May has thrown her own election campaign into chaos and confusion – Andrew Gwynne

Andrew

Gwynne, Labour's Election Co-ordinator, responding to the unravelling of the Tories' social care policy, said:

"Theresa

May has thrown her own election campaign into chaos and confusion. She is unable to stick to her own manifesto for more than four days. And by failing to put a figure for a cap on social care costs, she has only added to the uncertainty for millions of older people and their families.

"This is weak and unstable leadership. You can't trust the Tories – if this is how they handle their own manifesto, how will they cope with the Brexit negotiations?"
