

Thousands of Civil Service roles moved out of London in latest reform to the state

Civil servant roles, including senior leadership, will be relocated to 13 locations across the UK to develop and deliver policy closer to communities