

Thousands to benefit from the security of a safe home

£350 million invested to increase number of affordable and social homes, support homeownership and ease council housing pressures