

Three in four cancer patients to survive long term under new plan

Patients will receive faster diagnosis, quicker treatment and the support to live well with cancer under the government's landmark new National Cancer Plan.