

Train services between Bradford and London more than triple thanks to government funding

5 additional train services daily will bring an estimated extra £4 million into the local economy each year.