

Transport Department's special arrangements for licence renewals on Budget Day

The Transport Department (TD) announced today (February 12) that to prevent members of the public from rushing to the TD's Licensing Offices to submit applications for the renewal of expiring and expired vehicle and driving licences before Budget Day, the TD will implement the following arrangements:

- All vehicle licences eligible for renewal on or before Budget Day (February 26), i.e. vehicles that are registered at the time of renewal and have licence expiry dates falling on or before June 25, can be renewed at the present rate, whether for four months or 12 months, at any time up to and including June 25.
- All full Hong Kong driving licences and driving instructor's licences eligible for renewal on or before Budget Day (February 26), i.e. those expiring on or before June 25 and those that have expired for less than three years at the time of renewal, can be renewed at the present rate at any time up to and including June 25.
- The special arrangements only apply to applications for the renewal of vehicle licences, full driving licences and driving instructor's licences that meet the conditions above. They do not apply to any other licensing services.

"It is not necessary for eligible licence holders to rush to the TD's Licensing Offices to submit applications for the renewal of their vehicle or driving licences on speculation that those licence fees may increase in the coming Budget. The aforementioned arrangements are not related to the content of the Budget, on which the TD has no information," a spokesman for the TD said.
