

Trio receive jail term for dumping mustard gas bombs in a Lincolnshire lake

The three broke laws protecting the environment and are the first people in the UK to be charged with possession of a chemical weapon.