

Troops and veterans one step closer to stronger legal protection

The Overseas Operations Bill for service personnel and veterans will be laid before Parliament today for its Second Reading.