

Tuen Mun Job Centre to merge with Yuen Long Job Centre

The Labour Department (LD) today (March 14) announced that to enhance the effectiveness of using public resources, the Tuen Mun Job Centre will merge with the Yuen Long Job Centre starting April 1. Upon merging, the job centre at G/F, Victory Building, 3 Tsing Min Path, Tuen Mun, New Territories, will be renamed as the New Territories West Job Centre to continue providing services to the public. For the addresses and service hours of the job centres, please visit the LD's Interactive Employment Service (iES) website.

The LD provides diversified and free employment services for job seekers. Apart from services provided by job centres, the LD's iES website and the iES mobile application provide round-the-clock online employment services and employment information to enable job seekers to search for job vacancies and submit job applications online. Job seekers and employers can also call the hotlines for job seekers (2969 0888) and employers (2503 3377) of the Telephone Employment Service Centre of the LD to access services.

The LD will continue to review its services in a timely manner, and adjust and enhance them in light of the service needs and market situation to enhance efficiency.
