

Two men given suspended prison sentences after social media posts brag about illegal salmon and sea trout fishing

As part of a joint investigation with Northumbria Police, the offenders were found guilty of using unlicensed nets.