

UK and Belize work together to strengthen community-led fisheries management

The UK's Marine Management Organisation, is working with the Belize government to protect marine ecosystems, through the Ocean Country Partnership Programme (OCP).