

UK and NATO nations ramp up response to Putin's aggression in Ukraine and incursions into Europe

More than 85,000 military drones have been delivered by the UK to Ukraine in just six months this year by accelerating production from British companies.