

UK, Australia and Germany issue statement on merger control

Three leading competition authorities come together to stress importance of merger enforcement for healthy economic recovery