

UK breeds success with good genes in livestock genetics market

Agri-food attachés secure new export opportunity in Kenyan market for British sheep and goat genetics worth around £700,000 a year