

UK brings forward world's first sanctions regime to smash the gangs responsible for irregular migration

Anyone complicit in facilitating people smuggling to the UK will be at risk of having their assets frozen and being banned from travelling to Britain, under new powers announced by the Foreign Secretary today.