

UK business factory linked to registration of thousands of companies for China-based clients is shut down

Companies wound-up in the public interest following Insolvency Service investigations