

UK commits to international legal order with European partners

The Attorney General Lord Hermer KC has reiterated the UK's commitment to upholding international legal order at a flagship event with European partners held in London.