

UK contributes over $30 million to support Somalia's security transition

UK Minister for Development announced the new funding to support non-lethal support for Somali forces and AU-led security efforts.