

UK cracks down on Russia's exploitation of vulnerable migrants and deadly drone capability

The UK has announced a raft of new sanctions to curb production of Russian drones and the nefarious networks that are exploiting vulnerable migrants from across the globe to support Russia's illegal war in Ukraine.