

UK demonstrates commitment to high-quality education for all as ASEAN ministers convene at London forum

The roundtable highlighted country-led reforms and global lessons that can support inclusive and lasting progress.