

UK deploys search and rescue team and emergency funding to support Venezuela earthquake response

The UK is releasing an initial £2 million in humanitarian funding to support the response to devastating earthquakes in Venezuela, including a deployment of specialist search and rescue personnel.