

UK Government commits up to £9m to support Mossmorran's future

New funding designed to help secure a successful future for the site and support the local economy and communities affected by the closure.