

UK launches consultation on domestic implementation of global minimum tax for large multinational groups

The UK government has today (11 January 2022) published a consultation seeking views for how a worldwide 15% minimum corporation tax should be domestically implemented.