

UK launches study on regulatory reform to enhance gender equality and support MSMEs in ASEAN

The research identifies challenges for businesses, particularly women-led microenterprises, and suggests inclusive policies to foster growth and innovation.