

UK leads Europe with contracts for low-cost air defence systems

MOD has awarded £3.16 million to three companies to counter drone threats, becoming the first European partner to act under a joint defence programme.