

UK manufacturers to save millions of pounds a year as government removes offshore wind energy tariffs

British manufacturers will save millions of pounds a year as the Government removes tariffs on offshore wind energy components from 1 April.