

UK pledges up to £130m for girls' education in Pakistan

The United Kingdom (UK) on Saturday announced a bilateral programme worth up to £130 million to support girls' education in Pakistan that will impact nearly 17 million children.