

UK provides further support in Pakistan's fight against Coronavirus

The UK is playing a leading role in the global effort to tackle coronavirus, including on vaccine development, strengthening health systems and support for the global economy.