

UK reaffirms support for Ukraine's legal right to self defence: UK statement to the OSCE

The UK reaffirms Ukraine's right to self defence under Article 51 of the UN Charter and voices concern over external military and dual use support to Russia, stressing the need to uphold international law and maintain region...