

UK shares expertise to enhance flood resilience in Malaysia

A roundtable for effective flood management and responses in cities brought together esteemed experts to address the pressing challenges of urban flooding.