

UK steps up support for Venezuela following devastating earthquakes

The UK is scaling up its humanitarian response to Venezuela following the devastating earthquakes on 24 June