

UK steps up support to stop spread of Ebola in eastern DRC

The UK has announced up to £20 million to support communities affected by the deadly Ebola outbreak in eastern Democratic Republic of the Congo