

UK support Solomon Islands government to progress EITI commitment

The UK government through the British High Commission in Honiara has signed a technical agreement with the Solomon Islands government to commence work on EITI re-entry.