

UK to become world's fastest market to commercialise innovation with regulatory shake-up

The Government has announced regulatory reforms to help businesses test and commercialise new products faster. Marking one year on from the launch of the Modern Industrial Strategy, the changes will boost investment, support...