

UK to provide engineering support to Poland amid border pressures

140 military engineers are deploying to Poland to provide specialist support in response to the pressures from irregular migration at the Belarus border.