

Press release: Baroness Anelay visits the Caribbean and Central America

On 1-5 May 2017 the Rt Hon Baroness Anelay of St Johns DBE, Minister of State for the Caribbean, the Commonwealth and the UN, visited Trinidad & Tobago, Guyana and Venezuela for the first time.

While in Trinidad & Tobago, Baroness Anelay met President Carmona, where she discussed bilateral relations and Commonwealth affairs. The Minister also met the Minister of Foreign and Caribbean Community Affairs, the Attorney General and Minister in the Office of the Prime Minister to discuss corruption and UK support for criminal justice reform in Trinidad & Tobago.

Baroness Anelay, who is also responsible for the UK's international policy on human rights and gender issues, met the Director for Gender and Child Affairs and local NGOs to discuss current work on these issues in Trinidad & Tobago.

Baroness Anelay then travelled to Guyana to meet with President Granger and members of the Cabinet; the Secretary General of the Caribbean Community, Irwin LaRoque; members of the Private Sector Commission and a number of NGOs. Guyana and the UK have worked closely to tackle corruption, violence, and the infiltration of narcotics and people traffickers from across Guyana's borders.

On the last part of the visit in Venezuela, an FCO Human Rights Priority Country, the Minister explored joint programmes on human rights, energy, climate change, and education and cultural co-operation. She met government Ministers to discuss bilateral relations, human rights, climate change and energy. In these meetings the Minister also expressed her concern about the ongoing political situation and unrest in Venezuela. Baroness Anelay also met Venezuelan human rights defenders, to review important UK projects in capacity building and gender equality.

Further information

Press release: Foreign Secretary visits Tobruk, Libya

The Foreign Secretary met Agila Saleh and Ahmied Homa, the President & second vice-President of Libya's Parliament – the House of Representatives. In this meeting, Mr Johnson emphasised the importance of Libya's legitimate political institutions working together to break the impasse and restore security, stability, and prosperity in Libya.

After this meeting, the Foreign Secretary visited Tobruk Commonwealth War Cemetery, which is the final resting place of over 2,000 Commonwealth soldiers. Mr Johnson also laid a wreath at the Cemetery's memorial and visited the Cemetery's Guest room, which contains artefacts commemorating Britain's role in Libya during the Second World War.

Today's visit followed the Foreign Secretary's meetings in Tripoli yesterday with the Libyan Prime Minister Fayyez Al-Serraj and Foreign Minister Mohamed Siala. He also met with Abdurrahman Swehli the President of Libya's High State Council.

Speaking after the visit to Tobruk, the Foreign Secretary said:

In my meetings in Tobruk I have stressed to the Presidency of Libya's House of Representatives the importance of working with Prime Minister Serraj and Libya's High State Council to break the political deadlock and bring renewed hope for the people of Libya.

A more secure, stable and prosperous future for Libya can only be restored when their leaders choose to work together in the interests of the Libyan people.

Further information

News story: The AAIB has sent a team to Buckinghamshire

[unable to retrieve full-text content]The AAIB has sent a team to investigate a helicopter accident in Buckinghamshire

Press release: Interim Housing Ombudsman

David Connolly will act as the interim Housing Ombudsman from 5 June 2017.

David Connolly will act as the interim Housing Ombudsman whilst recruitment for a permanent post-holder takes place. This will be effective from 5 June 2017 when the current Housing Ombudsman, Denise Fowler, leaves to take up her new role.

News story: Use the Charity Commission website to answer your query

Our online guidance and services are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

How to change your correspondence or email address

Use our online service to change your charity's details.

How to request a new password

If you are an established, registered charity you can request a new or replacement password online. You'll need to enter your charity number and the password will be emailed to the address we have on file.

If you are applying to register a charity and need a new password, you can request it through our online service

How to get a copy of a governing document

You should contact the charity first. Some charities may provide governing documents on request or through their website.

If you are a trustee, professional advisor or a member of the charity you can ask for a copy of the governing document. All members of the trustee body should be given a copy as part of normal governance processes.

If you can't get a governing document from the charity you can use our general enquiry form to request one.

How to submit an annual return

The annual return service for the financial period ending in 2017 will be available on this website in the summer.

You can read our guidance to help you submit your annual return.

Response times for general queries

If you have sent a query to the Charity Commission we will aim to respond within 15 working days.

Our contact information and opening times are available on the homepage.