

This is an extremely serious revelation that contradicts past assurances about the role of the Bank of England in the Libor scandal – McDonnell

John

McDonnell MP, Labour's Shadow Chancellor, responding to reports that the Bank of England was involved in the Libor rigging, said:

"This is an extremely serious revelation that contradicts past assurances about the role of the Bank of England in the Libor scandal.

"It goes to the very heart of whether our financial institutions can be trusted. Therefore, it warrants an immediate high level investigation, and the Chancellor must act straight away to ensure this happens."

Today's figures demonstrate the failure of the Tory Government's industrial strategy – John McDonnell

John McDonnell MP, Labour's Shadow Chancellor, commenting on today's manufacturing and trade figures, said:

"Today's figures demonstrate the failure of the Tory Government's industrial strategy.

"UK manufacturing output has shrunk for the second consecutive month and our trade deficit, on both goods and services, has widened for the second consecutive month, getting 2017 off to a particularly worrying start.

"It is becoming increasingly clear that the Tory Government's rhetoric on its industrial strategy isn't matched by reality.

"Only Labour, with a proper industrial strategy, and a plan for a high-investment, high-skill and high-wage economy will deliver the trade and export opportunities of the future."

Jeremy Corbyn statement on US air strikes on a Syrian air base

Jeremy Corbyn MP, Leader of the Labour Party, speaking in response to the US air strikes on a Syrian air base, said:

"The US missile attack on a Syrian government air base risks escalating the war in Syria still further.

"Tuesday's horrific chemical attack was a war crime which requires urgent independent UN investigation and those responsible must be held to account.

"But unilateral military action without legal authorisation or independent verification risks intensifying a multi-sided conflict that has already killed hundreds of thousands of people.

"What is needed instead is to urgently reconvene the Geneva peace talks and unrelenting international pressure for a negotiated settlement of the conflict.

"The terrible suffering of the Syrian people must be brought to an end as soon as possible and every intervention must be judged on what contribution it makes to that outcome.

"The British government should urge restraint on the Trump administration and throw its weight behind peace negotiations and a comprehensive political settlement."

Conservative's reckless Brexit shows

they're prepared to gamble the UK's ties to EU energy markets to wriggle out of climate change commitments – Long-Bailey

Rebecca

Long-Bailey, Labour's Shadow Business Secretary, commenting on reports that Britain is looking for ways to scrap its 2020 clean energy targets while maintaining everyday trade in Europe's energy market, said:

"The Conservative's reckless Brexit shows they're prepared to gamble the UK's ties to EU energy markets simply to wriggle out of their climate change commitments. They're failing one of Labour's six tests by watering down environmental and climate change protections, and leading a race to the bottom.

"The fact is that the Tories would risk our lights going out in order to create a low-wage, deregulated, bargain basement Britain.

"Theresa May needs to give Britain's energy security and our commitment to renewable energy investment the status it deserves. At present it seems that only Labour would guarantee investment in our future energy needs that meet our climate change commitments, and build a new working partnership with the rest of Europe."

Theresa May seems determined to turn a blind eye to inconvenient facts – Abbott

Diane

Abbott MP, Labour's Shadow Home Affairs Secretary, commenting on reports in the Independent that Theresa May blocked attempts to highlight the impact migration

can have on the economy and public services during the EU referendum, said:

“This

raises serious questions about the Prime Minister’s priorities.

“Exiting

the EU will mean reforming our entire immigration system. But doing so should not be at the cost of jobs and the economy.

“Unfortunately,

Theresa May seems determined to turn a blind eye to inconvenient facts.

“This report should be published in full.”
