

Brexit Deal Briefing

“A People’s Vote is now the only way to escape from this mess” – Vince Cable

Any Brexit deal will leave the UK weakened and the public poorer.

“And before the ink is dry, the Conservative Party will tear into what little Theresa May has been able to agree. The Prime Minister now faces a defeat in Parliament, as a majority will be hard or impossible to secure for what she has come up with.”

For two years, the Liberal Democrats are the only party who have consistently fought to give the people the final say on the deal. As we see the chaos that is now unfolding, it is more important than ever to give power over the country’s future back to the people.

Go to Source

Author:

Sal Speaks: November 2018

This week is Transgender Awareness week, and if you haven’t had a chance to read my blog on the importance of supporting and standing alongside our transgender friends and colleagues, you can read it here:

libdems.org.uk/trans-rights-are-human-rights.

Transgender and intersex communities are too often marginalised, and many forget that in the fight for equality, trans rights are human rights. We must, and we are, endeavouring to ensure that a vulnerable group of people are able to live as they are entitled to under our laws.

Please sign up to support our campaign here: libdems.org.uk/trans.

Go to Source

Author:

Trans rights are human rights

Across the Atlantic, Trump and his cronies are doing their very best to rewrite the definition of transgender out of existence. An agenda of social cleansing that feeds into his administration's insular and antagonistic narrative. We may like to think that Trump's views are in isolation, that his fear of difference does not seep to our shores, but it does.

Go to Source

Author:

Corbyn says "We can't stop Brexit"

Jeremy Corbyn was asked "If you could stop Brexit, would you?"

His response?

"We can't stop it. The referendum took place. Article 50 has been triggered."

Go to Source

Author:

Johnson resigns to back final say on Brexit

Today, Jo Johnson quit as a Conservative government minister over the Brexit deal Theresa May is putting together – a deal which gives people the worst of both worlds.

Go to Source

Author: