

We marched

In July 2016, in the aftermath of the referendum, the Liberal Democrats were a lone voice calling for a final say on whatever deal was done on Brexit.

Go to Source

Author:

Labour's Brexit Fudge

On Saturday, during the People's Vote march in London, activists will be given a piece of Labour's Brexit fudge – reminding them that Jeremy Corbyn's Labour party is fudging its position on giving the people a final say on Brexit.

Go to Source

Author:

Speech by Democrats 66 Leader Rob Jetten in the House of Commons

Like the Liberal Democrats, D66 is a progressive liberal party that holds its roots in the free-spirited leftist liberal party.

Go to Source

Author:

The Tories' handling of Brexit is a

national embarrassment.

Today Theresa May announced that she was open to extending the transition period – a clear admittance that her Brexit deal is unworkable.

Go to Source

Author:

How we stop Brexit

What's been happening?

The Liberal Democrats have been dedicated more money, and more time and more of our key campaigners to stopping Brexit.

We've still got time to stop Brexit and we're ramping up our campaign. Big time.

And it's working. So far we have:

Go to Source

Author: