

Ban on letting fees must not leave any loopholes for landlords to exploit

Wera Hobhouse MP, Liberal Democrat Communities and Local Government Spokesperson, commented:

Go to Source

Author:

Comments from Goldman Sachs boss shows threat of Brexit to our financial sector

Comments made today on Twitter by Goldman Sachs boss Lloyd Blankfein highlight very real concerns about the threat of Brexit to our financial sector.

Go to Source

Author:

C02 emissions hit record high

The government must take urgent action following a UN report warning that C02 emissions have reached a record high.

Go to Source

Author:

It's time for Amber Rudd to do her job and defend police from cuts

The Conservatives have savaged our police force – inflicting deep cuts that have left officers struggling to respond to crime and weakening their ability to protect our communities.

Go to Source

Author:

Tom Brake responds to PM statement in Brussels

“The Prime Minister cannot say one thing in Brussels and another in Britain. She needs to face down the right-wing Brexiteers in her party in order to guarantee the talks actually move forward. Above all she still needs to protect citizens’ rights to ensure they are not a casualty of a no-deal Brexit, and the European Union must also do more to make this happen.

Go to Source

Author: