

Osborne is right to take on May over Northern Powerhouse

I'm backing George Osborne in the row with Theresa May over HS3. He's accused her advisers of trying to bury the Northern Powerhouse.

Go to Source

Author:

Even Brussels must be tired of this waffle

Each Brexit paper the government releases leaves us with more questions than answers. Even Brussels must have had enough of this waffle by now.

Go to Source

Author:

Brexit negotiations – Government must get real instead of producing fantasy wishlists.

David Davis is sowing the seeds of more chaos with these short-sighted and short-termist plans.

Go to Source

Author:

ECJ plan shows Govt is in denial over reality of international trade

Sir Paul Jenkins has called Theresa May's Brexit strategy 'foolish' for hoping to distance the UK from the European Court of Justice whilst maintaining the benefits of the single market.

Go to Source

Author:

David Davis' comments on timetabling of Brexit talks reek of desperation

David Davis promised us 'the row of the summer' over the Brexit timetable, only to capitulate weeks later to the EU's preferred timetable after a disastrous general election for his party which vastly undermined their negotiating position.

Go to Source

Author: