

Voices of Grenfell residents must not be ignored again

Today's news that the Grenfell inquiry will not look into broader questions of social housing policy is a wasted opportunity.

Disappointingly, the inquiry will only look into the actions of Kensington and Chelsea Council in the run up to the tragedy.

Go to Source

Author:

---

3.6% rail fare rise is a bitter blow to passengers

This steep hike to rail fares will be a bitter blow for passengers struggling with overcrowded and unreliable trains.

Go to Source

Author:

---

Customs Union plans just delaying pain from extreme Brexit

Even if the government's plans for new customs arrangements with the EU were agreed to by the EU, these proposals will only delay the economic pain caused by leaving the customs union.

Go to Source

Author:

---

Hammond and Fox Brexit piece not cleared with David Davis

It has emerged that the joint position on Brexit agreed in an article by Philip Hammond and Liam Fox was not even cleared with Brexit Secretary David Davis.

Go to Source

Author:

---

Garden Bridge project a scandalous waste of taxpayers' money

Today's news that the Garden Bridge project has been officially scrapped is very welcome. The entire project was a "scandalous waste of public funds."

Go to Source

Author: