

Eurozone growth puts UK at bottom of league table

The Eurozone has grown twice as fast as the UK, which in no time has gone from the top of the growth league to the bottom.

The government's shambolic handling of Brexit, which is denting business confidence by the day, is certainly not helping.

Ambitious for our country; ambitious for our party – Vince Cable's Leadership Manifesto

I want to lead the Liberal Democrats because I am ambitious about our future.

I believe we are the only party that can represent the millions of liberal-minded people alarmed by the direction this country is taking: people, whether they voted remain or leave, who hate the intolerance, xenophobia and division that the Brexit vote unleashed.

I want the Liberal Democrats to be at the centre of political life: a credible, effective party of national and local government, and a voice of sanity on Europe.

To achieve this, we will have to fight for every vote and every seat.

It can be done: we have a record membership and the enormous energy that thousands of new members have brought to the party.

I believe I have the ability to give that energy a lead, to hit the headlines and to put our party at the centre of political debate.
