

Rear Admiral Andy Kyte CB announced as the next Chief of Defence Logistics and Support

His Majesty the King has approved the appointment of Rear Admiral (RAdm) Andy Kyte CB as the next Chief of Defence Logistics and Support (CDLS), in the rank of Vice Admiral, from September 2023.

Defence Procurement Minister, Make UK Defence Summit speech

Defence Procurement Minister Alex Chalk delivered a speech at the Make UK Defence Summit in Birmingham

Royal Navy ships to be fitted with advanced new missile system

The missiles will be fitted to eleven frigates and destroyers after a deal with the Norwegian government.

UK to give artillery rounds and helicopters as part of military aid to Ukraine

10,000 artillery rounds will be donated, as the UK completes the first delivery of Sea King helicopters to Ukraine.

New legal powers to support Armed Forces families and Veterans

The MOD has backed a new legal Duty that supports Armed Forces personnel, their families and Veterans.