

Education Minister comments following December Monitoring Round allocation

Education Minister, Paul Givan has said significant financial pressures will remain following the funding allocation received by his Department in the December monitoring round.

Executive agrees £273 million investment in public services

The Executive has today agreed £104 million towards public sector pay awards and £162 million for capital allocations including for social housing, health and education as part of December monitoring round.

Urology Reform Transforming Patient Care

Over 70 men have now received pioneering robotic Aquablation surgery since May 2025, marking a major leap forward in how prostate conditions are treated across Northern Ireland.

Long confirms PSNI recruitment funding and police officer pay uplift

Following the December monitoring round, the Justice Minister has confirmed funding for PSNI recruitment and the full recommended pay uplift for police officers will now be available.

Education Minister launches a new literacy framework for Northern Ireland

Education Minister, Paul Givan, has launched a new literacy framework for primary schools aimed at strengthening literacy practice across Northern Ireland.