

Givan calls for withdrawal of Transgender Guidance for schools

Education Minister Paul Givan has written to the Education Authority requesting the immediate withdrawal of its 2019 transgender guidance.

SmartCards introduced for Strangford Lough Ferry Service

The Department for Infrastructure (DfI) has introduced a new online SmartCard service for Strangford Lough Ferry Service.

Kimmins joins first birthday celebrations at Grand Central Station

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has joined Translink staff to celebrate the first year since the opening of Grand Central Station.

Long meets therapy dog helping children and young people in court

The Justice Minister has met a therapy dog who helps children and young people as they prepare to attend courts across Northern Ireland.

Call for locality-led projects under RAISE Programme

Education Minister Paul Givan has officially launched a first call for proposals for Locality-Led Projects as part of the RAISE Programme.