

Lyons – Boxing is a positive force for community relations

The Minister was speaking as he welcomed a report by the Equality Commission following its review of governance, practices and procedures at the Ulster Boxing Council.

Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland – recruitment competition launched

The Executive Office today launched a competition to appoint a new Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland (PONI).

From Forensics to AI: New bulletin maps out Cyber Security careers

A new resource has been published which focuses on career opportunities in the fast-growing Cyber Security sector in Northern Ireland.

Archibald announces the appointment of new Industrial and Fair Employment Tribunal members

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has announced the appointment of 56 new non-legal panel members to serve on the Industrial Tribunals and the Fair Employment Tribunal (ITFET), following an open competition.

Justice Minister attends Prison Service remembrance service at Hydebank

Justice Minister Naomi Long today attended the Northern Ireland Prison Service Annual Memorial Service to remember officers who lost their lives in the course of duty.